

PRIORITIZING ACHIEVABLE FEDERAL ELECTION REFORM

The Bipartisan Policy Center, the American Enterprise Institute, Issue One, R Street, and Unite America recently released a new framework for achievable, bipartisan federal election reform.

READ THE FULL REPORT

HOW IT WORKS

Our framework proposes 12 incentive-based minimum standards. States who meet all the standards would receive additional federal funding to fill existing gaps in necessary resources to run elections.

CURRENT UPTAKE BY STATES

Our proposed minimum standards have already been implemented to varying degrees in states across the country. The below chart shows the % of recommendations met by each state.

100%

Colorado & Georgia
meet all standards

TOP TEN STATES

ranked by % of standards met as of Jan 2022

Colorado (100%)	Hawaii (92%)
Georgia (100%)	Rhode Island (92%)
Alaska (92%)	Virginia (92%)
Arizona (92%)	Washington (92%)
Florida (92%)	Iowa (84%)

POLICIES THAT TRANSCEND PARTISANSHIP

Both Republican and Democratic run states have widely adopted our recommendations, indicating that good policy has no party.

